Identify each pitch in the first measure, then re-write the notes of each first measure in the clef of the second measure.